Bibles texts basis and conclusion

The Bible texts to search for were determined by looking at the Scripture indexes of Greg Bahnsen's Cornelius Van Til: Apologetics Readings and Analysis (VTARA) and Always Ready (AR). This method will not pick up two of Van Til's uses of the Bible: (1) there are Biblical allusions scattered throughout Van Til's writings;¹ and (2) Van Til often uses the "Biblical Theology" of his beloved teacher Geerhardus Vos² with its "teachings of creation, fall, and redemption in Christ."³

The Bible texts are given in order of the number of hits found on the Van Til CD-ROM.

NB The King James Version was used, as this is the version Van Til usually quotes. Where "OR" has been used in the search the number of articles is the number of hits. There are allusions to Scripture that will not be included in the totals below. The respective Bible verse(s) may be included in separate editions of the same book or in other authors writings quoted by Van Til or in other author's writings in the Festschrift for Van Til Jerusalem and Athens.⁴ In other words Van Til's actual usage of the respective Bible verse will be less than is given below but this is still a guide to Van Til's use of Scripture.

Conclusion for most quoted Bible texts: If we just note the articles / hits above 50 then the Bible texts Van Til quotes and uses most are, in order of most quoted:-
